

U.S. Army Mission and Installation Contracting Command

Brigadier General Douglas S. Lowrey

Commanding General

Brig. Gen. Douglas S. Lowrey is the commanding general of the Mission and Installation Contracting Command at Joint Base San Antonio-Fort Sam Houston, Texas. The MICC, a subordinate command to the U.S. Army Contracting Command, is comprised of approximately 1,500 uniformed and civilian acquisition and support professionals providing Army commands, installations and activities with responsive business solutions and contracting administration.

The MICC consists of two brigades, two field directorate offices, 30 field-level contracting offices and nine battalions located throughout the United States and Puerto Rico. Its brigades, battalions and contracting detachments are strategically aligned to deploy Soldiers with their supported mission partners during contingency and humanitarian operations both overseas and across the homeland.

Prior to assuming command of the MICC, he served as the commanding general of the U.S. Army Security Assistance Command at Redstone Arsenal, Alabama.

Brigadier General Lowrey was commissioned in 1994 as a second lieutenant and Infantry Officer through the Army ROTC program at Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, where he earned a Bachelor of Science in Biology.

His advanced education includes a Master of Business Administration from the Naval Postgraduate School and Army War College Fellowship at the University of Texas at Austin. His professional military education includes the Infantry Officer Basic and Advanced Courses, Combined Arms Services Staff School and Army Command and General Staff College.

Brigadier General Lowrey has held numerous command and staff positions of increasing responsibility. His key assignments prior to USASAC include the Director of Army contracting, Office of the Deputy Assistant Secretary of the Army for Acquisition, Logistics and Technology, Washington, D.C.; Deputy Director of contracting management, U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, Washington; Commander, 409th Contracting Support Brigade, Sembach Kaserne, Germany; Deputy Chief of Staff for Operations, ACC, Redstone Arsenal; and Commander, 901st Contingency Contracting Battalion, Fort Hood, Texas. His operational assignments include deployments in support of Operation New Dawn, Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation Unified Response and Operation Intrinsic Action.

His military awards and decorations include the Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal, Defense Meritorious Service Medal, Meritorious Service Medal with three oak leaf clusters, Joint Service Commendation Medal, Army Commendation Medal with two oak leaf clusters, Joint Service Achievement Medal, Army Achievement Medal with two oak leaf clusters, Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal, and Global War on Terrorism Service Medal.
