

MR. BRIAN I. DRIGGERS

Deputy to the Commander

U.S. Army Security Assistance Training Management Organization

Mr. Brian I. Driggers assumed duties as Deputy to the Commander, U.S. Army Security Assistance Training Management Organization (USASATMO) in September 2021. In this capacity, he assists the Commander in leading USASATMO, overseeing a global security assistance training staff of over 200 Soldiers, Department of the Army Civilians, and contract personnel, including headquarters staff and Security Assistance Teams deployed in support of every Geographic Commandant Commander.

Mr. Driggers has served in numerous positions at multiple Geographic Combatant Commands (U.S. European Command and U.S. Africa Command), to include assignments as a security cooperation program manager, political-military affairs officer, and Deputy Regional Engagement Division Chief, J5 Strategy, Engagement, and Programs Directorate, U.S. Africa Command (USAFRICOM) J5. He also previously served in USASATMO, managing training support for the Office of the Program Manager - Saudi Arabia National Guard. Mr. Driggers comes to SATMO from the USAFRICOM J5 in Stuttgart-Moehringen, Germany, where he served as Director of Staff.

Mr. Driggers served 14 years in the U.S. Air Force, Air National Guard, and U.S. Air Force Reserve. He entered the U.S. Air Force after graduating with a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Management from North Carolina State University, where he received his commission through the Reserve Officers' Training Corps as an Air Battle Manager. His military career includes experience in political-military affairs, security cooperation, security assistance, and a range of staff and operational assignments. His operational assignments as an ABM include rated officer experience in the E-3 Airborne Warning and Control System aircraft as well as Air and Space Operations Center weapons systems.

His military education includes Undergraduate ABM Training, AWACS Initial and Mission Qualification Training, AOC IQT (Distinguished Graduate) and MQT, AOC Senior Air Defense Officer Course, Squadron Officer School, NATO Staff Officer Course, Air Command and Staff College, and Joint Forces Staff College (Joint Combined Warfighting School), where he was honored as a Distinguished Joint Planner.

His DA Civilian education credits include the Army Security Cooperation Planners Course (Army War College), U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID) Joint Humanitarian Operations Course, Joint Senior Leaders Course, Security Assistance Training Team Orientation Course, every Army Management Staff College course including the Continuing Education for Senior Leaders Course, and a range of courses through the Defense Acquisition University and the Defense Security Cooperation University. Mr. Driggers holds a Tier III DoD International Affairs Certification as well as a certification in Security Cooperation Planning, Oversight, and Execution. Mr. Driggers is also a Harvard Senior Executive Fellow.

His DA Civilian awards include the Joint Meritorious Civilian Service Award, Joint Civilian Service Commendation Award, two Army Commander's Awards for Civilian Service, and two Joint Meritorious Unit Awards.