

John B Hildebrand
7th Signal Command (Theater), Fort Gordon, GA
Civilian Deputy to the Commanding General

Mr. John B. Hildebrand assumed his current position on 17 June 2013 as the Civilian Deputy to the Commanding General and Senior Technical Advisor. Mr. Hildebrand is a native of Fond du Lac Wisconsin and holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Education from the University of Wisconsin in Whitewater. He holds advance degrees in Masters of Arts and Sciences from the Command and General Staff College and a Masters in Strategic Studies from the Air War College.

Mr. Hildebrand began his career with the U.S. Army in 1983 as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army Signal Corps. He served in a variety of command, troop and staff officer positions in his 30 year military career with the most notable being the Commander of the 11th Signal Brigade, Fort Huachuca AZ; G3, Network Enterprise Technologies Command, Fort Huachuca AZ; and Deputy Commander, 7th Signal Command (T), Fort Gordon GA.

Mr. Hildebrand has received numerous awards and recognitions for his achievements including the Distinguished Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Bronze Star Medal and Armed Forces expeditionary Medal with Arrowhead.