

Major General Karl H. Gingrich

Director, Program Analysis and Evaluation, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-8

In July 2019, Major General Karl H. Gingrich became the Director of Program Analysis and Evaluation (PA&E), office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-8, Headquarters, Department of the Army.

As the Director of Program Analysis and Evaluation (PA&E), General Gingrich is responsible for developing the Program Objective Memorandum (POM). He assesses, evaluates and synchronizes Army programmatic actions to ensure Army senior leaders possess the relevant facts to implement critical policy and resourcing decisions. He is also the Executive Agent for the Operations Research/Systems Analysis (ORSA) functional area (FA49).

Prior to his current assignment, MG Gingrich served as the Director, Capability and Resource Integration, J-8, United States Cyber Command, from 2017 until 2019. Previous to this, he served as the Assistant Program Executive Officer for Operations, Readiness, and Fielding, Office of the Program Executive Officer, Command, Control and Communication (Tactical), at Aberdeen Proving Ground.

Major General Gingrich was commissioned from Temple University as an Armor Officer with a degree in Civil and Construction Engineering Technology. After leading tactical formations he embarked on a career in Operations Research, supporting and leading the Army's Force and Program Development with service at every echelon.

His operational experience includes Operation Enduring Freedom as the Deputy Director, CJ-5/Chief of Assessments, NATO Training Mission-Afghanistan/Combined Security Transition Command-Afghanistan, and Operation Iraqi Freedom as the Chief, Force Generation, Plans, and Assessment Division, J-5, Multi-National Security Transition Command-Iraq.

Major General Gingrich holds Master's Degrees from the University of Louisville, Air University, and the National Defense University.