

ARMY
FUTURES COMMAND

BG Michelle M. T. Letcher

Brig. Gen. Michelle M. T. Letcher is responsible for facilitating timely and effective decision-making, problem-solving, information integration and communications across the command.

Letcher is a native of Oak Forest, Illinois, and commissioned into the Air Defense Artillery branch via the Reserve Officer Training Corps in 1995, later becoming an ordnance officer. She holds a bachelor's degree in social work from Illinois State University and master's degrees in human services and counseling, advanced military studies and national security and strategic studies from the State University of New York at Oswego, the Command and General Staff College and Kansas State University, respectively. Letcher has served in a variety of leadership and combat roles, including in Afghanistan, Iraq, Korea and Germany.