

Colonel Jordan V. Henderson III

Deputy Chief of Staff, Army Recovery Care Program
U.S. Army Medical Command

Colonel Jordan V. Henderson III currently serves as the Director of the Army Recovery Care Program (ARCP). He is a native of South Carolina. He enlisted in the Army and served as an Infantryman before being awarded an Army Green-to-Gold Scholarship. He is a Distinguished Military Graduate from the University of South Carolina ROTC program with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Finance. COL Henderson holds a Master's degree in National Security and Strategic Studies from the U.S. Navy War College and a Master's degree in Healthcare Administration from Texas State University. He is nationally recognized as a board-certified Fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives.

COL Henderson has served in a myriad of staff and leadership positions throughout his career to include: Medical Platoon Leader, 3rd Battalion, 73rd Armor (Parachute Tank Battalion), 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg, North Carolina; Company Executive Officer, Assistant S-3 and Battalion S-4, 82nd Forward Support Battalion, 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg, North Carolina; Division Medical Planner, 4th Infantry Division (Mechanized) at Fort Hood, Texas; Company Commander, 704th Division Support Battalion, 4th Infantry Division (Mechanized) at Fort Hood, Texas; Battalion S-3, 204th Forward Support Battalion, 4th Infantry Division (Mechanized) at Fort Hood, Texas; Force Development Officer, Office of the Surgeon General at Falls Church, Virginia; Medical Organizational Integrator, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-3/5/7 at Washington D.C.; Executive Officer, 44th Medical Brigade at Fort Bragg, North Carolina; Commander, McAfee United States Army Health Clinic at White Sands Missile Range, New Mexico; Chief, Medical Plans and Operations, I Corps, at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington; Battalion Commander, 56th Multifunctional Medical Battalion, 62nd Medical Brigade, at Joint Base Lewis-McChord, Washington; Hospital Commander, 212th Combat Support Hospital, 30th Medical Brigade, at Rhine Ordnance Barracks, Germany; Chief, G-37 Readiness and Training, Office of the Surgeon General, at Falls Church, Virginia; and Brigade Commander, 30th Medical Brigade, Sembach, Germany.

His military education includes: the Army Medical Department Officer Basic Course, Combined Logistics Captain's Career Course, Combined Arms Service Staff School, United States Army Command and General Staff College, and United States Navy War College.

COL Henderson has numerous awards and decorations commensurate with his rank and achievements to include: the Legion of Merit, Combat Infantryman Badge, Expert Infantryman Badge, Combat Medical Badge, Expert Field Medical Badge, Master Parachutist Badge, Air Assault Badge, Ranger Tab, Army Staff Identification Badge, and Order of Military Medical Merit.

COL Henderson is married to the former Nancy L. Norwood. They have two daughters, Aliyah and Maya.