

HQDA G-8
Director of Program Analysis and Evaluation

Peter N. Benchhoff
Major General

Major General Peter N. Benchhoff serves as the Director of Program Analysis and Evaluation (PA&E) at HQDA, G-8. As the Director of PA&E, MG Benchhoff leads the Army's capstone process for programming. He is directly responsible to the Secretary of the Army and the Chief of Staff of the Army for the independent assessment, integration, and synchronization of the Army Program and development of the Army's Program Objective Memorandum (POM).

MG Benchhoff's previous General Officer assignments include: serving as the Director of Force Management at HQDA, G-37, where he led the Army's Total Army Analysis planning process to field mission ready organizations; and as the Deputy Commanding General (Operations) for the 82d Airborne Division at Fort Liberty, NC.

MG Benchhoff has served in key operational command and staff positions from platoon leader to brigade commander in light infantry, airborne, and ranger units. MG Benchhoff also served as the director of the Chief of Staff of the Army's coordination group and as the executive officer for the Vice Chief of Staff of the Army. His operational experience includes seven combat deployments to Afghanistan.

MG Benchhoff's education includes a Bachelor of Science degree from the United States Military Academy, a MBA from Touro College, a Masters of Military Science from the Marine Corps University, and a Masters of Strategy from the US Army War College. He holds numerous awards and decorations and is proudest of the Valorous Unit Award and Presidential Unit Citation he was awarded as a member of the "Strike Force" - 2d Battalion, 502d Infantry (Air Assault).

MG Benchhoff is married to Dr. Theresa Benchhoff, MD and they have three sons: Jonathan, Philip, and Alexander. His hobbies and interests are focused on his family and sports.
