

What is a Special Victim Liaison (SVL)?

SVLs are civilians assigned within OSTC's 28 field offices who are responsible for establishing and maintaining open and consistent lines of communication with victims. SVLs possess expertise to help victims navigate the military justice process and maintain networks of local resources to ensure victim's needs are met.

Want more information?
Go to www.army.mil/ostc
or scan the QR Code