

CSM Christopher R. Shetland
130th Engineer Brigade
Command Sergeant Major

CSM Christopher Shetland is a native of New London, CT. He entered the Army National Guard on 26 December 1995 and active duty in September of 1998. During this time, he completed OSUT training as a Combat Engineer with the 35th Engineer Battalion, Fort Leonard Wood, MO. He later attended the US Army Prime Power School and reclassified as a Prime Power Production Specialist.

CSM Shetland's assignments include the 242nd Engineer Battalion, Rockville, CT; 2nd Engineer Battalion, Camp Castle, Korea; 317th Engineer Battalion Fort Benning, GA; USAPPS, Fort Belvoir, VA; A/249th Engineer Battalion, Schofield Barracks, HI; A/3-10 Infantry Regiment, Fort Leonard Wood, MO; B/249th Engineer Battalion, Fort Bragg, NC; HHC/249th Engineer Battalion, Fort Belvoir, VA; 317th Engineer Company, 864th Engineer Battalion, JBLM, WA; A/249th Engineer Battalion, Schofield Barracks, HI; ACSENG/USARPAC, Fort Shafter, HI; USASMA, Fort Bliss, TX; ENDIR ARCENT, Shaw AFB, SC; 31st Engineer Battalion, Fort Leonard Wood, MO; Raptor Team JMRC, Hohenfels Training Area, Germany, and the 130th Engineer Brigade, Schofield Barracks, HI.

His duty positions have included Team Leader, Squad Leader, Senior Power Station Electrician, Prime Power Supervisor, Power Station Sergeant, First Sergeant, Operations Sergeant, Senior Drill Sergeant, TF Senior NCO, Engineer Directorate Sergeant Major, Senior Enlisted OC/T, and Command Sergeant Major.

CSM Shetland is a graduate of the United States Sergeants Major Academy Class 68 and his military education includes all levels of NCOPDS, Master Resiliency I and II, Drill Sergeant School, Combatives Level I, OC/T Tier 1 and 2, and Joint Engineer Operations Course. CSM Shetland holds a Bachelor's degree in Disaster Response and Emergency Management from American Military University.

His deployments include two tours to Afghanistan (2002-2003 and 2013) and two tours to Iraq (2004-2005 and 2008-2009). CSM Shetland has also responded to multiple disasters in Oklahoma, Hawaii, Micronesia, Saipan, and Guam.

CSM Christopher Shetland is married to the former Ashley Moniz and they have one child, Catherine (8).