

Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army

MICHIGAN

TAMMY J. CARNRIKE

Email: tcarnrik@detroitchamber.com

Ms. Carnrike is the Chief Operating Officer for the Detroit Regional Chamber. In this position, she has overall responsibility for signature events and programming including the Mackinac Policy Conference, high-profile convening, leadership development initiatives, development of middle market strategy and initiatives, corporate governance oversight, major investor relationships, day to day leadership in support of and in absence of President & CEO, as well as national benchmarking.

A leader in chamber management for more than 20 years, Ms. Carnrike has served in several national leadership positions including Chairman of American Chamber of Commerce Executives and Chairman of the U.S. Chamber's Institute for Organization Management Board of Trustees. She also served as faculty for the Institute, teaching to chamber and association professionals.

EDUCATION

After earning a business degree, Carnrike refocused her education in the field of Organization Management, graduating from the Institute for Organization Management at the University of Delaware.

MILITARY SERVICE

Proud to have participated in the 84th Joint Civilian Orientation Conference (JCOC), the oldest outreach program in the Department of Defense and the only such program sponsored by the Secretary of Defense.

MEMBERSHIPS AND OTHER AFFILIATIONS

Ms. Carnrike serves as a member of the Advisory Council for the U.S. Army Tank-automotive & Armaments Command (TACOM); a member of the following – Michigan Advisory Committee of U.S. Global Leadership Coalition; National Rainmakers Council for metropolitan chambers of commerce; additionally she serves as a board member for Macomb Feed the Needy and Citizen Detroit.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS

Ms. Carnrike was recognized as "Woman Who Leads" honoree by WJR News Talk 760, a "Powered by Women" honoree by DBusiness Magazine, a "Power Player" by Ambassador Magazine, and included in Dbusiness Magazine's "Detroit 500 Most Powerful Leaders" for the past two years.

ORIGINAL APPOINTMENT

February 2018

