

Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army
NEW YORK (NORTH)

JOSEPH M. BUTLER, Jr.

Email: joeymbutler@hotmail.com

Mr. Butler is a Registered Representative with FINRA holding his General Securities license (series 7) and is an Accredited Investment Fiduciary (AIF). Mr. Butler has worked for Community Bank Wealth Management in Watertown, NY, as a Financial Consultant since 1997.

EDUCATION

B.A. Economics, St. Lawrence University, Canton, NY 1989. MBA, Lemoyne College, Syracuse, NY 1999

GOVERNMENT SERVICE AND CIVIC INVOLVEMENT

Mr. Butler is the former Mayor of Watertown, New York, where he served from 2016 through 2019. Before being Mayor, he served two terms on the Watertown City Council from 2008 through 2015. During his tenure as Mayor, he also served as President of the Watertown Local Development Corporation and board member of Gov. Andrew Cuomo's Regional Economic Development Council for the North Country region. Mr. Butler served as co-chairman for the city of Watertown's Downtown Revitalization Initiative and was chairman of the Empire State Poverty Reduction Initiative. He also served as Vice Chairman for the Watertown Jefferson County Transportation Council.

MEMBERSHIPS AND OTHER AFFILIATIONS

CIVIC: Former Treasurer of the Sacred Heart Foundation 2008-2017. Former Adjunct Professor for Jefferson Community College. Past Board Member of the American Red Cross Local Chapter. Past Member of the St. Patrick Church Parish Council. Current volunteer and Special Olympics Coach for the Jefferson-Lewis Region. Current Board Member for the Fort Drum Regional Liaison Organization.

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS

Certificate of Leader Development, National Security Seminar, US Army War College, Carlisle, PA. Three-time finisher of the Adirondack Challenge 90 mile canoe race. Past President of Beta Theta Pi St. Lawrence University and Captain of the St. Lawrence University Baseball Team.

ORIGINAL APPOINTMENT

December 2019

