

Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army

NEW JERSEY (NORTH)

RICHARD W. EASTMAN, Jr.

Email: vpi@att.net

Mr. Eastman is the Military Liaison for the Morris County Chamber of Commerce supporting the Army's Soldier For Life, Community Covenant Programs, and Adaptive Sports Awareness (DoD Warrior Games/ warrior care and transition). His previous positions include: Vice President Network Engineering, Virtual Presence International of the World Trade Centers Association; Director of VPI's Global Youth Education; Manager, AT&T (Computer Training, China Senior Management Development); Science Teacher – St. Cecelia High School.

EDUCATION

Bergen Catholic High School, Oradell, NJ 1960

BS Mathematics, St. Peter's College, Jersey City, NJ 1964

MBA Program Studies, Fairleigh Dickinson University and University of Denver 1983

US Army Command and General Staff College, 1977

US Army Guided Missile Center & School, RSA AL, 1966

MILITARY SERVICE

1965-1968 Active Duty US Army, Ordnance Missile Maintenance Officer: OGMS Branch Chief HAWK BCC-PA / Foreign Liaison; 1968-1988 Army Reserves, C&GS Instructor, FEMA; Lieutenant Colonel.

MEMBERSHIPS AND OTHER AFFILIATIONS

MILITARY: NJNG State Family Readiness Council (501c3); FMWR-Picatinny Arsenal Installation Management, Fellowship and NJ Fallen Heroes Memorial; Association of the United States Army (AUSA); American Legion; Morris County Support to Military Families.

CIVIC: AT&T (retiree) / LIFE Member TELCOM Pioneers: cultivate awareness of SFL (employment, wounded warrior support, education, job skill training, etc.)

(NJ) State Family Readiness Council - Assess needs of NJNG families, especially with respect to deployment of "Head of Household" and issues relating to "Health / Welfare, Education, Employment." The SFRC coordinates with public and private sector resources to minimize impact of stress on deployed family member during deployment - thus supporting "the mission".

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS

Ordnance Corps' Samuel Sharpe Award; Freedom Team Salute; Leadership Morris Alumni Achievement Award, Morris County Board of Chosen Freeholders' Distinguished Military Service; NJ Army National Guard Certificate of Appreciation.

ORIGINAL APPOINTMENT

October 2014

