

Colonel Frank Dennis

Colonel Frank Dennis was born in Busan, South Korea. He began his Army career as a Distinguished Military Graduate from the University of South Dakota where he commissioned as a Military Police Officer.

Colonel Dennis is also a graduate of the Military Police Officer Basic and Captain's Career Course, the Army Command and General Staff College, and The Eisenhower School. His civilian education includes a Master's in Strategic Resource Management from The Eisenhower School, a Master's of Military Arts and Sciences from the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, and a Bachelor of Science in Journalism from the University of South Dakota.

Colonel Dennis has served in numerous command, staff, and duty positions. His most recent assignment was Military Deputy to the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower and Reserve Affairs. Prior to that, Frank commanded the 19th Military Police Battalion (CID), Schofield Barracks, Hawaii and served as the Deputy Brigade Commander for the 8th Military Police Brigade. As a major, he served as the Military Police Field Grade Assignments Officer at Army Human Resources Command, Fort Knox, Kentucky as well as the Executive Officer and Operations Officer for the 5th Military Police Battalion (CID), Kaiserslautern, Germany. As an exchange officer, Frank served as the Regimental Operations Officer for the 3D Royal Military Police Regiment, Army of the United Kingdom, Wiltshire, England where he deployed to Lash Ka Ghar, Afghanistan as a Military Police Advisor on Operation Herrick 17 and 18 (British Army Task Force Helmand) in support of the 2d Scottish Highland Fusiliers. Frank also served as an Officer Basic Course Team Chief at the U.S. Army Military Police School, Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri. As a captain, he commanded the 58th Military Police Company in Diyala, Iraq during Operation Iraqi Freedom 08-09. Prior to company command he served as the 8th Military Police Brigade and the 728th Military Police Battalion Training Officer on Schofield Barracks and deployed with the 728th Military Police Battalion on Operation Iraqi Freedom 07-09, COB Speicher, Tikrit. As a lieutenant, Frank served as Aide de Camp to the Commanding General, Special Operations Command Korea, Camp Kim, and as an executive officer and platoon leader in the 55th Military Police Company, Yongsan, Korea.

Frank is married to his high school sweetheart, Shilah Dennis of Falcon Colorado. They have two amazing kids and love to travel and explore the world. Frank enjoys listening to all genres of music while finding any reason to be outdoors. A collector of hobbies, he most recently started practicing bonsai.