

Civilian Aide to the Secretary of the Army

WYOMING

ROBERT A. FITTON

Email: nfan3@aol.com

Mr. Robert Fitton retired as a Colonel in the U.S. Army after more than 30 years of service in the United States and abroad, serving in various executive leadership positions. After retirement from the Army, he had a successful business career as corporate President and in executive management positions with several consulting companies. From 2018 until May 2024, he served as the U.S. Army Reserve Ambassador for Wyoming.

EDUCATION

Mr. Fitton is a graduate of the U.S. Military Academy with a Bachelor of Science in Engineering degree. He holds a master's degree in education from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. He is an alumnus of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces (now Dwight D. Eisenhower School for National Security and Resource Strategy) at the National Defense University.

MILITARY SERVICE

Mr. Fitton retired from the U.S. Army in 2001 at the rank of Colonel after a distinguished career of more than 30 years of active-duty service. He served in various locations and duty positions across the United States and overseas.

MEMBERSHIPS AND OTHER AFFILIATIONS

MILITARY: National Infantry Association Order of Saint Maurice; Member, Association of the U.S. Army; Member, the American Legion (2022-present); alternate for the Military Service Academy Nomination selection board for Senator Barrasso.

CIVIC: Member, Wounded Warrior Mentor Program; Member, National Museum of the US Army; Member, West Point Association of Graduates (1971-present).

AWARDS AND RECOGNITIONS

Mr. Fitton's awards and decorations are commensurate with his leadership positions, responsibility, and time in service. His military awards and badges include the Defense Superior Service Medal, Legion of Merit, Meritorious Service Medal (5 OLC), District of Columbia National Guard Meritorious Service Medal, Parachutist Badge, Ranger Tab, and German Armed Forces Efficiency Badge.

ORIGINAL APPOINTMENT

May 2024

