

CIAR

Counterintelligence Awareness and Reporting

U.S. ARMY

SEE SOMETHING SAY SOMETHING

ISALUTE

WHAT TO REPORT

Insider Threat

A person with placement and access who intentionally causes loss or degradation of resources or capabilities or compromises the ability of an organization to accomplish its mission through espionage, providing support to international terrorism, or the unauthorized release or disclosure of information about the plans and intentions of U.S. military forces.

Terrorism

The calculated use of violence or threat of violence to inculcate fear, intended to coerce or to intimidate governments or societies in the pursuit of goals that are generally political, religious, or ideological.

Surveillance

The systematic observation of aerospace, surface, or subsurface areas, places, persons, or things, by visual, aural, electronic, photographic, or other means.

Security Compromise

Communications security incidents that are the result of deliberate security compromises, in which there are indications of foreign intelligence or international terrorist involvement, or in which the person or persons involved exhibit behaviors that may be associated with espionage or international terrorism. Incidents in which DA personnel deliberately violate policy or procedures in the processing of classified information using information systems or digital media.

Treason

One who, owing allegiance to the United States, levies war against the United States or adheres to its enemies, giving them aid and comfort within the United States or elsewhere. It also includes one who, having knowledge of the commission of treason, conceals and does not, as soon as possible, report it.

Espionage

The act of obtaining, delivering, transmitting, communicating, or receiving, information in respect to the national defense with an intent or reason to believe that the information could be used to the injury of the United States or the advantage of any Foreign Nation and not pursuant to an international agreement duly entered into by the United States.

Sabotage

An act or acts with the intent to injure or interfere with, or obstruct the national defense of a country by willfully injuring, destroying, or attempting to destroy any national defense or war material, premises, or utilities, to include human and natural resources.

Suspicious Contact

Any questionable, unsolicited meeting, association, or communication conducted in person, by telephone, letter, online or other means by an unknown and or foreign person that may represent a threat to DoD security interests.

Sedition

An act or acts intending to cause the overthrow or destruction of the U.S. Government by force or violence or by the assassination of any U.S. Government official. These acts include conspiracy, knowingly or willingly advocating, abetting, advising, or teaching the duty, necessity, desirability, or propriety of overthrowing or destroying, by force or violence, the U.S. Government.

Subversion

An act or acts inciting military or civilian personnel of the DOD to violate laws, disobey lawful orders or regulations, or disrupt military activities with the willful intent to interfere with, or impair the loyalty, morale, or discipline of the military forces of the United States.

CONTACT US

AR 381-12

1-800-CALLSPY