ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, January 3, 1845.

SIR: In conformity with the requirements of section 11 of the act of August 26, 1842, I herewith submit duplicate lists of the names of the clerks and messenger employed in this office, with the amount of the stated salaries received by each, as fixed by law, &c.

The current business of this office, stated and incidental, will not justify a reduction of the number of clerks at this time, as now authorized by law; nor is the removal of any of them, and the appointment of others in their stead, necessary for the better despatch of business. The gentlemen have been properly and efficiently employed.

I am, sir, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

L. THOMAS,
Assistant Adjutant General.

ORDNANCE OFFICE,
Washington, January 3, 1845.

SIR: In compliance with the acts of Congress passed April 20, 1818, and August 26, 1842, I transmit herewith a statement (in duplicate) of the names of the clerks and messenger employed in this office, with the time each was employed, and the sums paid to each, during the year 1844; with the required remarks in relation to each.

I have the honor to be, sir, your obedient servant,

G. TALCOTT,
Lieutenant Colonel Ordnance.

Hon. WM. WILKINS,
Secretary of War.

Statement of the names, &c., of the clerks and messenger employed in the Ordnance Office during the year 1844, made in pursuance of the act of Congress of 26th August, 1842, chapter 202, section 11.

Names and office.	Salary per annum.	Period of service.		Amount paid.
		From	To

				$8,650

The persons above named have been constantly and necessarily employed in the duties of this office, and none of them could be dispensed with, without detriment to the service. I renew the statement so often made, that the salary allowed by law to the chief clerk in this office, as above stated, is altogether inadequate to the duties he has to perform, and is less than is allowed in other offices of equal responsibility; for the extent of which, I respectfully refer to my annual report, which forms a part of the printed executive document No. 2, 1st session 28th Congress, page 263.

ORDNANCE OFFICE,
Washington, January 3, 1845.

G. TALCOTT,
Lieutenant Colonel Ordnance.
