TRANSMITTING,

In compliance with section 194 of the Revised Statutes, the accompanying report of the names of the clerks and other persons employed in that department from December 1, 1879, to November 30, 1880, &c.

JANUARY 24, 1881.—Referred to the Committee on Printing.

FEBRUARY 23, 1881.—Ordered to be printed.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington City, January 21, 1881.

The Secretary of War has the honor to transmit to Congress, in compliance with section 194 of the Revised Statutes, the accompanying report of the names of the clerks and other persons employed in the War Department, and officers thereof, from December 1, 1879, to November 30, 1880, and to respectfully state that they have all been usefully employed, and that the services of none of them can be dispensed with without detriment to the public service.

The removal of any individuals and the appointment of others in their stead is not required for the better dispatch of business.

Respectfully submitted.

ALEX. RAMSEY,
Secretary of War.

The PRESIDENT of the Senate United States.

WAR DEPARTMENT, BUREAU OF MILITARY JUSTICE,
Washington, D. C., January 17, 1881.

SIR: I have the honor to inclose herewith a list of the names of the employes of this bureau during the year ended November 30, 1880, together with the time they were actually employed, and the sum paid to each.

The force of the bureau has been usefully employed, and the services of any of them cannot be dispensed with without detriment to the public interests.

The removal of any employes and the appointment of others in their stead is not required for the better dispatch of business.

An additional messenger is necessary for the care of six rooms and for attending to the commissions on public business of the officers of the bureau and chief clerk, and it is respectfully requested that the proper appropriation for the employment of such a messenger may be recommended by the Secretary of War.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

10 LIST OF CLERKS, ETC, IN THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

WAR DEPARTMENT, QUARTERMASTER-GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, D. C., January 10, 1881.

SIR: I have the honor to submit herewith report required by section 194 Revised Statutes, showing the names of the clerks and other persons employed in the office of the Quartermaster-General from December 1, 1879, to November 30, 1880, with the time each person was actually employed and the amount paid each, and residence at time of appointment.

They have all been usefully employed, and the removal of none of the present force is at present recommended.

An estimate has been submitted to the War Department for a temporary increase of the clerical force of this office.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

M. C. MEIGS,

Quartermaster-General, Brevet Major-General, U. S. A.

Hon. ALEXANDER RAMSEY,
Secretary of War.
