MOS 79R

Recruiters are agile and adaptable Army professionals who display moral character, competence and resolute commitment while serving in positions of special trust and authority. Recruiters conduct initial accession operations, and in-service special mission recruiting in a decentralized geo-dispersed environment throughout the United States and its territories; as well as the American communities in Europe and Asia. Recruiters are charged with the mission to recruit America's best volunteers to enable the Army to win in a complex world.
