

Matthew L. Sannito

Assistant Deputy, Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-4

Mr. Matthew Sannito is currently serving as the HQDA Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff, G4 responsible for Army logistics plans, policy and programs. In this role, he serves as the Army's leading Civilian expert and authority on logistics, managing a budget of over $10B/year.

Mr. Sannito's most recent assignment was as the Director, Supply Policy and Programs (G-44S) where he directed and managed Army-wide policies and programs for supply chain management, life cycle accountability, and the management of property and inventory for major end items, secondary items, troop support and services, munitions, and other readiness logistics programs, all in support of Army logistics and sustainment infrastructures. He was responsible for policy, planning and programming for the Army's national through retail supply operations and field services, and develops key logistics implementation action plans in order to build Total Army Readiness. He also oversaw both audit readiness planning and logistics reform efforts within the enterprise.

He was previously assigned as the Deputy to the Commanding General, Army Sustainment Command and was selected to the Senior Executive Service in March 2018. Mr. Sannito led and directed the Command's global sustainment mission that encompasses a workforce of approximately 500 Soldiers, 7,400 civilians, and 40,000 contractors. Army Sustainment Command links strategic and operational sustainment capabilities to tactical units, integrates and synchronizes materiel distribution, and enables Army readiness.

Mr. Sannito was the Executive Director for Support Operations Army Sustainment Command. His portfolio included Army Prepositioned Stocks, Logistics Readiness Centers, Equipping Readiness, Direct Theater Support, Logistics Assistance Program, Joint Personnel Property Shipping Offices, Theater Provided Equipment, Pre-Deployment Training Equipment, Army Airlift Clearance Authority, Authorized Stockage List Analysis; Army Oil Analysis Program, PS Magazine, Packaging, Storage, and Containerization Center, and Acquisition / Contract Management.

Mr. Sannito is a Distinguished Graduate of the Army War College with a master's degree in Strategic Studies, master's degree in Logistics Management from Florida Institute of Technology; and dual BA degrees in Finance and Management from Loras College.

Mr. Sannito's principal awards include multiple Superior Civilian Service Award, numerous Meritorious Civilian Service Medals, the Civilian Service Commendation Medal, the Global War on Terrorism Medal, and the Army Superior Unit Award.

