Subject: U.S. Army Transportation Command Shipper Session Notice for 11 Dec 2025

Purpose: The purpose of this training course is to equip logistics leaders and professionals with essential knowledge and skills related to effective shipping container management.

Be Advised: This course is designed to inform logistics leaders/professionals of the importance of proper shipping container management, and recent updates to policy that will impact personnel and standard operating procedures.

The course will also advise on practices and procedures that may reduce the incidence of container detention charges to the Department. Finally, this course will familiarize attendees with how centralized container management is in the best interest and efficiency of the DoD.

The shipper training session will be held via Microsoft Teams from 1300-1400 CST and led by HQ ARTRANS G4. The meeting invite will be sent out on the morning of 9 Dec 2025.

To register, please send an email to usarmy.scott.artrans.mbx.g3-shipper-session@army.mil by close of business on 5 Dec 2025 stating you wish to attend. Only .mil and .gov email addresses will be accepted. Requests from other email domains will be denied. Upon registration, kindly submit any topics you would like to see discussed in the future.
