JBLM MWR to Host “Turkey Shoot” Community Event

JOINT BASE LEWIS-MCCHORD, Wash. — Joint Base Lewis-McChord (JBLM) Morale, Welfare and Recreation (MWR) is excited to announce its upcoming “Turkey Shoot” community event, scheduled for Saturday, November 22, from 11 AM to 3:30 PM at the MWR Fest Tent.

This free event is for all ages, featuring a variety of activities designed to bring military families of the JBLM community together. Highlights of the “Turkey Shoot” include:

- Grocery Pickup Program: A valuable resource for attendees, offering groceries for military families while supplies last.
- Gellyball Turkey Shoot: A unique and engaging activity for those looking for some friendly competition.
- Resource Tables: Providing essential information and services to the JBLM community.
- Arts & Crafts: Creative outlets for children and adults alike.

In addition, the first 200 attendees will receive free pizza and drinks, generously provided by the Gary Sinise Foundation. This is an opportunity to come talk with MWR and learn more about their programs and services.
