Today looks messy, less than ideal for training. Cigs will range from 005-007 for much of the day, and light-moderate showers will stream in thru 15L. Expect 4°/visible moisture during the AM/PM. By tomorrow AM, cigs lift to 015, winds pick up (G20kts), and ICING could be a factor for the first half of the AM. Skies should scatter out by 10L, giving way to a breezy but VFR PM/N1. The rest of the week looks uneventful.
