Futures and Concepts Command
U.S. Army Transformation and Training Command
Fort Eustis, VA

Mr. William Chlebowski
Deputy Director, FCC

Mr. William Chlebowski is the Acting Director of Concepts for Futures and Concepts Command, Transformation and Training Command. The Directorate of Concepts has the responsibility for the U.S. Army to develop the U.S. Army's vision of how future Army forces will operate, equip, and be organized for future warfare in coordination with Joint and multinational partners, and then lead concept development and assessment in order to provide the foundation for the design and development of the Army's future force.

Mr. William Chlebowski served 30 years in the U.S. Army, retiring at the rank of Colonel in 2021. He hails from Mt Pleasant, PA and received his commission at Valley Forge Military College in 1989. He then served as a TOW platoon leader in the 1-110 INF PANG while earning a degree in Economics from the University of Pittsburgh. Upon completing his degree Mr. Chlebowski received a regular Army commission in the Field Artillery.

William has served in strategic to tactical level command and staff positions across the world in combat and garrison environments. He deployed Alpha Battery 1-82FA to Bosnia Herzegovina to conduct peacekeeping operations as a maneuver company attached to TF 2-5 CAV during Operation Joint Forge in 1999. From 2002-2005 Mr. Chlebowski was assigned to 3 BCT, 1st INF DIV in Germany. He first deployed to Kosovo as the Chief of Plans and Fire Support Officer for Multinational Brigade East a unit of NATO's Kosovo Force and then deployed to Iraq to serve as the TF S3 and XO for TF 1-6 FA conducting full spectrum operations in Baqubah, Iraq.

Mr. Chlebowski commanded the 5-25th FA, 4th BCT 10th Mountain DIV at Fort Polk LA from APR 2009 to JAN 2012. He deployed the battalion to Afghanistan in 2010 where the battalion performed both a maneuver and fires mission in Logar and Wardak Province. Mr. Chlebowski commanded the 177th Combined Arms Training BDE at Camp Shelby MS from 2013-2015. Following command Mr. Chlebowski was assigned to TRADOC then Army Futures Command where we worked Combat vehicle and Fires modernization then future concepts until his retirement in 2021.

Mr. Chlebowski military education includes the Command and General Staff College and Joint Forces Staff College. He holds a Masters Degree in Administration from Central Michigan University and Masters in Strategic Studies from the Marine War College. His awards and decorations include the Army Valorous Unit Award, two Legions of Merit, two Bronze Stars, Defense Meritorious Service Medal and four Army Meritorious Service Medals. He has earned the Combat Action Badge, the Senior Parachutist Badge, the Air Assault Badge and Ranger Tab