U.S. Army Garrison, Dugway Proving Ground

Dugway, Utah

U.S. ARMY

Mr. Christopher C. Damour

Garrison Manager

Dugway, Utah

Mr. Damour is the USAG DPG Garrison Manager; reporting 14 June 2020.

He has been a Soldier or DoD Civilian most of his life. He was born at Fort Stewart, Georgia and moved with his family to Fort Knox, KY; Bangor, ME; Cranston, RI; Pittsburgh, PA and Chester, VA. He enlisted in the US Army at age 17 and served as a Supply Specialist/Armorer.

He began his civilian career with the Army as a cooperative education student in Environmental/Natural Resources Division of the Deputy Chief of Staff, Engineer TRADOC. He subsequently assumed positions of greater responsibility working on the installation staffs at Fort Dix, NJ; Fort Gordon, GA; and Fort Bragg, NC. He was then promoted to positions on the Region staff in the Plans Division of the Army Installation Management Command (IMCOM) Southeast and Korea Regions.

Upon departing Korea, Mr. Damour served as an IMCOM Liaison Officer to Army Materiel Command at Redstone Arsenal, AL; Deputy Garrison Commander of U.S. Army Garrison Kwajalein Atoll; Deputy Garrison Commander for the U.S. Army Support Activity - Soto Cano Airbase, Republic of Honduras; Executive Director to the Commander, Navy Region Korea; and most recently with IMCOM Directorate-Sustainment at Redstone Arsenal, AL as an Installation Support Team Specialist.

Mr. Damour attended Old Dominion University in Norfolk, VA and graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Biology. He also received an Army Cost Management Certificate from the Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, CA. He completed the Army Civilian Education System Intermediate and Advanced Courses, the Continuing Education for Senior Leaders Module, as well as the Naval Installations Command Senior Shore Leader Course.

Mr. Damour's key civilian recognition includes the Superior Civilian Service Medal, three Meritorious Civilian Service Medals, four Civilian Service Commendation Medals, Korean Civilian Service Medal, and he was the 2010 USFK Civilian Awardee by the Korean-American Friendship Society.