OFFICIAL SAFETY MAGAZINE OF THE U.S. ARMY

THIS WEEK 3/07/2013

PUSHING THE LIMITS

This is a typical “there-I-was” story, much like the ones I enjoy reading about in safety magazines. The only difference is I am the subject, and the following events (yes, that’s multiple events) happened to me. The lessons learned motivated me to change the way I think about my favorite hobby — motorcycle riding.

ROCKY MOUNTAIN HIGH

I have had the pleasure of attending some of the best schools the Army has to offer. One school recently taught me the valuable lesson of knowing my personal limitations regarding high-altitude flight.

‘BEAR’ OF A DILEMMA

My son and I were on an overnight hiking trip with his Boy Scout troop. The plan was to hike eight miles up the trail, sleep and then eight miles back. This was great in theory, but after we set out, things didn’t turn out quite as planned.

DID YOU KNOW?

Knowledge is always looking for contributors to provide ground, aviation, driving and off-duty safety articles. Don’t worry if you’ve never written an article for publication. Just write about what you know, and our editorial staff will take care of the rest. Your story might just save another Soldier’s life. Click the SUBMIT AN ARTICLE tab below to share your story.
