

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

Fourth Annual Major General Harold J. “Harry” Greene Awards for Acquisition Writing Competition

CHALLENGE: The Army Acquisition community is preparing for the future while continuing to assess lessons learned from past operations. The objective is to provide Soldiers with the right equipment, at the right time, and place to accomplish the assigned mission. It is important that we, members of the acquisition workforce and other interested individuals, drive the dialogue about meeting and overcoming significant challenges in delivering needed capabilities to Soldiers now and in the future.

PROPOSAL: The Office of the Assistant Secretary of the Army (Acquisition, Logistics and Technology) is sponsoring the fourth annual Major General Harold J. “Harry” Greene Awards for Acquisition Writing to continue to shape the public dialogue about U.S. Army Acquisition through critical writing. Maximum participation is encouraged, especially among members of the Department of Defense (DoD) Acquisition Workforce, although the competition is open to anyone. The writings submitted must address solutions for navigating the current environment or discuss the way ahead, from an acquisition perspective, for building the Army of the future. All submissions should connect the acquisition process to its impact on the Soldier.

TOPICS: Authors are required to select and write about U.S. Army Acquisition from the following categories: (1) Acquisition Reform; (2) Future Operations; (3) Innovation; or (4) Lessons Learned.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS: Submissions – in one of the four categories identified – must be sent to usarmy.pentagon.hqda-asa-alt.mbx.acq-writing-awards@mail.mil by midnight September 26, 2017, along with a brief (not to exceed four lines) biographical statement about the author; email address; telephone number; and complete mailing address. Each submission is recommended to be between 500 words and 1,800 words, double-spaced, and prepared in Arial 12-point font. (There is no requirement to submit in layout format or with footnotes, endnotes, or acknowledgment lists of individuals.) Submissions must be unclassified and cleared for public release/publication by the author's organization.

ARTWORK: Photographs, graphics (illustrations and charts), or a combination of both may accompany each submission, but are not required. All photographs must have a minimum 300-dpi resolution and be in TIFF or JPEG format. Please provide the photographer's name and command for each photo submitted; the artist's name and command for each illustration; and the source organization for each chart.

ELIGIBILITY: Essays must be original, not previously submitted to any writing competition or published (including online), and completed during Fiscal Year 2017. An author may submit more than one entry, but only one per category. Two or more individuals may author an entry. The competition is open to any author (both DoD and non-DoD personnel are eligible) writing about U.S. Army Acquisition. Government contractors must complete their submissions outside of normal duty hours, and it is suggested that others do so as well.

EVALUATION PROCESS: Once essays are submitted to usarmy.pentagon.hqda-asa-alt.mbx.acq-writing-awards@mail.mil, no editing or revision is permitted. Entries will be evaluated by a review board from September 28 to November 9, 2017, to determine the winners and honorable mentions in each category. Entries will be awarded points based on persuasiveness (20%); clarity and strength of argument (20%); innovation (20%); relevance to current or future environment (20%); and feasibility (20%).

AWARDS: Four (4) award winners will be selected (one in each category) and submitted for publication in Army AL&T magazine and four (4) additional submissions will be selected for honorable mention. In the case of a tie, each submission will be recognized. The four winners will also receive awards at the annual U.S. Army Acquisition Executive's Awards Ceremony and Banquet scheduled to be held in Washington, D.C.
